

QAS Aviation Academy

A division of Quantum Holdings (Pty) Ltd.

CAA Registration Number: SACAA/1028/ATO

South Africa's Leading Aviation Training Academy - Established since 1997

1997 - 2020

Celebrating 23 Years of Service

Bringing the Sky to the People of Africa

Join the Exciting World of Aviation

Advantages in choosing this career

1. Mini Ambassador of South Africa
2. Enriching the tourism industry in South Africa
3. See the world and get paid
4. Travel opportunities and cultural liaison
5. Respected by your community, friends and family
6. Job variety and satisfaction
7. Flexible working hours
8. Independence
9. Self-development and great image in a uniform

Your benefits in being trained at QAS Aviation

- The Academy's course is recognised and registered with the Department of Labour (Service Provider Number 668)
- Your QAS Certificate and SA CAA License is actual proof to the Airlines that you have the aptitude to be a Cabin Crew Member.
- Excellent opportunity of being employed by Airlines.
- You will be prepared for the Airline interview in all ways.
- You will be confident and know that you fit the criteria.
- The Academy is aligned with the National requirements in terms of SAQA allowing you to gain credible skills program leading to qualification.
- Instructors and Designated Examiners are licensed with the SA CAA annually there- by ensuring that they remain current on all aspects of safety issues.

Do you fit the profile?

Are you:	YES	NO
Well Groomed and Self Presentation Skills
Fluent in English
Matriculated
Age, between 18-35 years
1,58 meters tall (dependant on Airline)
Mass in proportion to height
Medically and Physically fit
Good Eyesight
Ability to swim
SA Citizen or Permanent Resident

“Our Aim at the Academy is to guide you in your career quest in becoming a Cabin Crew Member”

QAS Aviation Academy is the 1st leading private Aviation Cabin Crew Training Specialists in the country.

Established since 1997, QAS has offered an unrivalled range of services for students to enable them to compete successfully and professionally in the National and International Aviation arena. QAS Aviation Academy's unique and revolutionary approach in the training of Cabin Crew ensures your learning experience is the start of a lifelong developmental process in a profession you will be proud of. QAS Aviation Academy offers intensive training programmes by specialised licensed Instructors and Aviation Industry experts. The Academy is registered and licensed with the Civil Aviation Authority (SACAA/1028/ATO) at Midrand

Coming On-board Assessment and Procedure

Your admittance to the Academy, requires that you participate in the Potential Index Battery (PIB) Competency Assessment.

This, together with the registration pack is at a cost of R750.00

PIB Results Report will be made available to you.

Should your results prove your competency suitable to be a Cabin Crew Member; a non-refundable 50% deposit of the course cost will be required in order to book your seat.

On registration, you will be handed a Pre-course workbook in order to prepare you for the journey ahead.

Module	Course	Cost
1.	Coming “On Board” Assessment and Procedures: Your admittance to the Academy, requires that you participate in the Potential Index Battery (PIB) Competency Assessment. Should your results prove your competency suitable to be a Cabin Crew Member— a non-refundable deposit of the course costs will be required in order to book your seat	R 750.00
2.	Initial Cabin Crew Course: Excludes VAT, Class II Medical, X-rays and SA-CAA licensing costs Includes transport to and from external training venues 50% deposit secures your seat. Balance due 2 weeks prior to the end of the course date	R 13,750.00
PASSMARKS AND EXCLUSIONS:
	Pass on theory components All Practical components Costing excludes any rewrites and re-attendance of any module where the pass-marks were not attained	90% Competent